Drivers please note changes to this year's rules (Please read carefully):

Step Van: The Committee approved the creation of a National Step Van Driving Championships. Here are the details:

- a. Although it is a separate competition it will be run at the same time and place as the NTDC. Depending on how many competitors we have (how many State TDC's hold a Step Van competition and send winners), the step vans may be integrated into the existing course or on a separate course. For now, there will not be a separate rulebook. There will be a supplemental document that will accompany the TDC rulebook that will refer to the qualifications/eligibility rules of the TDC rulebook that apply to the SVDC competition. Facts for Drivers will be the study tool for SVDC competitors.
- b. It will be an open competition – that is a driver does not have to be a step van driver to compete in the Step Van championships, although he/she does have to perform the regular duties of a truck driver (as set forth in the NTDC Rulebook). Note: Having it an open competition will no doubt guarantee we have the level of participation and commitment to warrant its continuance.
- c. Can be a CDL or non-CDL driver but if non-CDL he/she must drive step van or other Commercial Motor Vehicle (must be employed by a motor carrier or be a dedicated owner operator in accordance with the current rulebook). No driver may drive his/her own company's equipment (at NTDC).
- d. The SVDC competitor will have the same areas of competition: written exam, pre-trip inspection and skills course. (See "Personal Interview" decision below). The SVDC written exam will be the same as the NTDC exam. The time constraints for the pre-trip and skills test will be the same as straight truck. Skills test course will be left up to the course designer.
- e. There will be a SVDC finals competition run on Saturday.
- f. Because technically it is a separate competition, it is not counted in the NTDC Grand Champion or the other "special awards" – it will not be counted toward the Team Trophy – at least for year one.
- g. Three points of contact and "normal driving position" will be required (i.e., no hanging outside the step van door).
- h. The step van to be used in competition should have a GVWR of more than 10,001 lbs. but less than 26,000 lbs. (will be at NTDC).
- i. The SVDC is now subject to the "retirement rule". Anyone who has won two years in a row will now have to "retire" from the SVDC for one year.
- j. The SVDC has its own wildcard and first timer (doesn't count towards TDC's).

Summary of Rulebook Changes:

2019 MA Truck Driving Championship
New England Tractor Trailer Training School
1600 Osgood Street * North Andover, MA
Sunday, June 2, 2019

k. Chapter V, Section B- clarifies that in order to be eligible to compete, owner operators, driver owners and the like, as well as driver trainers and driver supervisors must meet the requirements set forth in bullets 2-5 (in short, perform the regular duties of a truck driver at least 1200 hours and 60% of the time, and for 11 of the 12 months), and further states that those whose primary duties are supervising, and/or managing the operation and/or business are not eligible. Also language will be added to recognize that the professional truck driver may and often does perform functions in addition to the “regular duties of a truck driver” as set forth in this paragraph 2 and that it is just as important that such driver perform these additional responsibilities safely and professionally; therefore, the accident-free, safe driving requirements and definitions set forth in this Chapter V, Section D (below) shall apply to those additional functions that involve the operation of equipment, including but not limited to hosting or driving the company automobile. (We will be adding language further defining commercial motor carrier vehicle.)

1. Chapter V, Section J, No 13: Entering Drivers in the Truck Driving Championships- Minor shifting and rewording of language were made to make it consistent with other sections of the Rulebook. It addresses the entry and release form (TR-1-2), which must be witnessed and signed by the entering employer as well as the driver and mailed or presented to the TDC Committee Chairman by the final entry date set by the State TDC Committee.

- m. Chapter V, Section L: Adding language (as bolded) to further clarify. In the event that a State Champion is unable to compete due to disqualification, ineligibility or for personal reasons, the second place winner in the same class may compete in the ATA National Truck Driving Championships if otherwise qualified. For purposes of this rule, disqualifying acts are defined in Chapter V, Section M paragraphs 17-19; acts or situations that render a State Champion ineligible are defined in Chapter V; and personal reasons are intended to include family emergencies, financial circumstance and/or a desire not to compete. For further clarification, in the case of a State Champion who is a non-ATA member and neither subparagraphs (a) nor (b) of Chapter V, Section A, paragraph 1 apply, the second place winner in the same class may compete.

- n. Chapter V, Section C: The NTDC Committee determined that an exemption to (a “relaxation of”) the “Length of Employment” rule was necessary and appropriate during times of significant economic difficulties. Therefore, for 2012, a driver who has been laid off due to “the economic conditions of [his/her] employer” will still be eligible to compete if he/she performs the normal duties of a truck driver for at least 11 of the 12 months and 1200 hours; he/she meets all of the other eligibility requirements; and he/she is performing the regular duties of a truck driver at/during the time of the State and National TDCs. In other words, the Committee is allowing a driver to be laid off for as many as 30 days as long as he/she meets all the other rules and is working full time as a truck driver for the entering employer at the time of competition.

- o. Retirement Rule: ATA will be sending a note to those drivers (and their supervisors) who have competed at NTDC in the same class for two years in a row or who competed at NTDC in the same class in 2014 and 2015 and sat out in 2016 to remind them that they must sit out of that class of competition for two years. ATA will also provide the states with the complete list of those drivers (who we know about) that must select another class in order to be eligible to compete in 2017; however, State TDC may want to remind those who competed and won at the State TDC two years in a row (who might not have gone to NTDC).
